

Pondering

Why did you choose this canvas for a second chance?

What part of this project excites you the most?

What portion frightens you a bit?

Predict the completion date.

Answer honestly. How many WIP are awaiting you?

Now, visualize one of those projects. Are you ever going to complete this one?

You have been asked to review your home insurance. Estimate the value of your needlepoint collection including canvas, threads, tools etc.

Who is most likely to receive a completed needlepoint from you? Who is the least likely? Why?
